GAME LAW.—When the Legislature of Maryland meets again there will be an effort made by the true sportsmen to pass such an amendment of the game laws as will prevent the utter destruction or driving away of the water fowl from Chesapeake Bay and its affluents. It is alleged that the bay and rivers running into it being the natural habitat of large numbers of water fowl in winter, as it supplies them with unsurpassed feeding places, there would be an abundance of game found if they were not driven away by unsportsmanlike.

THE GAZETTE.

DUBLIC SALE.—In consequence of the death of one of the proprietors, there will be sold at public auction, at the residence of the subscriber, at "Cedar Grove," near Accotink, Virginia, on MONDAY, the 23d of December, 1872, at 10 o'clock a. m., the personal property upon the said estate, consisting of about THIR—TY HEAD OF CATTLE, five Horses, one Mule, a lot of Sows and Grade Essex Pigs, one thorough-bred Essex Boar. Also an extensive lot of Wagons, Carts and Implements of every late of Wa there would be an abundance of game found in they were not driven away by unsportsmanlike devices. The law to prevent wholesale destruction limits the season during which game may be killed, but this is not sufficient, and now it is proposed to have such a change in the law as will abolish the artificial blinds that from natural points are made to project a hundred yards or more out into the water, and also forbid the use of decoys on the land. So numerous have those artificial blinds become that the ducks can find no safe feeding place and are being all driven away. If there is not some legal protection given in the manner askthey were not driven away by unsportsmanlike and are being all driven away. If there is not some legal protection given in the manner asked, the canvas-backs and other famous game birds will all be driven southward to the streams and other information apply to ROBERT BELL, Jr.,

ROBERT BELL, Jr., of Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. At particular points they are still plenty but their number bears no comparison with what it was ten or fifteen years ago. During the present week ducks were plenty at Lynch's but shooters few. At Rockey Point, Burnetson and one or two other sportsmen have killed a hundred canvas-backs and a number of others this week .- Balto. American.
